

Guildal Lecture

Fredag den 28. oktober 2016

Kl. 11:00 – 12:00

Lokale: Stockholm/Copenhagen/Helsinki/Oslo

Professor Denise Eygendaal

“The Elbow: Exclusive, Effective and Essential”

Dr. Eygendaal is professor in upper limb surgery and works at the Amphia Hospital and the University of Amsterdam. She works primarily with elbow joint pathologies.

Dr. Eygendaal finished her training in orthopaedic surgery in 2000, and did her PhD Thesis on ‘Medial instability of the elbow joint’ in 2000.

She has more than 95 scientific, peer reviewed, publications on the elbow joint and has contributed to more than 10 important books on surgery of the elbow. Denise Eygendaal is currently the PhD supervisor of 8 PhD students, she is editor of journal ‘Strategies in Trauma and Limb Reconstruction’ and reviewer of several journals.

She is consultant for all national, professional athletes for elbow related pathology and consultant for the lawn tennis federation, for the Dutch gymnast society and the Dutch baseball society.

Denise Eygendaal is residency training program director of orthopaedic surgery in collaboration with the University of Amsterdam and course chairman more than 10 A.O complex elbow courses worldwide.

Denise Eygendaal is board member of upper extremity expert group of A.O. international, board member of SECEC, president of the educational committee of SECEC (European Shoulder and Elbow Society (SECEC)), president of elbow & wrist committee of ESSKA and ISAKOS.